Package Description:

This package provides a series of methods to create masks for the movie which separate objects (e.g. cells) from the background. Masks are binary images which contain 1 where there is an object of interest (cell), and 0 where there is background.